1. Compliance

To sell in District of Columbia, RNDC requires the following documentation:

 - Copy of TTB License of the winery or distillery.
 - FedEx Alcohol Shipper's Permit. More information can be found here
 - LibShip Certification
 - Only if you have sales representation in the market: Solicitor's License
 - Makers need to create an account with District of Columbia DBPR to register their labels.
 - A step-by-step guideline can be found here.
 - Label Registration is done online and typically approved within 24 hours (but could take longer).
 - When registering with the state, be sure to add Brand name AND Label name as a description (For example: ABC Distillery/White Whiskey).
 - Makers must email the District of Columbia brand number to makers@libdib.com before offerings are approved and go live.
 - Using ASE, MHW, or Park Street?
 - When filling out the onboarding please select one of the above companies and RNDC will work directly with them to obtain your Brand Registration Numbers and State Compliance Documents.
 - Using a Co-packer or contract distillery/winery?
 - RNDC needs the license of who gets paid. If the product is still owned by the co-packer at the time of purchase, that is the license that is needed.

 - Class A manufacturer's license
- Out of State Makers:
 - Copy of home state alcohol license.
- RNDC Information:
 - All RNDC physical addresses can be found at www.rndc-usa.com
